

For the upcoming digital broadcasting for public radio stations, I would like to see positive consideration given to allowing two audio channels to be used. This will give small station the opportunity to provide more diverse programming with a smaller investment in equipment.